COUNTY RAILROAD STOCK. The following important resolution was manimously adopted: ORDER OF SALE. retered by the County Court, That Chairman omas Holmen, County-Attorney J. A. Taylor and pure P. M. Winters, be and they are hereby apinted a committee empowered to sell, in its distion, for the best price obtainable, the stock held the county of Shelby in the Louisville and Nashe railroad company; provided, that this order of by the county of Shelby in the Louisville and Nashville raliroad company; provided, that this order of sale be approved and consented to by the people of the county, at an election to be held to test that question, which is now ordered to be held on the second Tuesday, being the thirteenth day of April, 1880. The sheriff of Shelby county will hold said election as other elections are held, and will advertise the same at least thirty days beforehand by notices posted up at the different places of voting, specifying the time it is to be held and the amount of stock to be sold. Those voters favoring a sale will have written or printed on ther ballots, "For sale of stock," and those opposed to a sale with have written or printed on their ballots the words, "Against sale of stock." The sheriff will make return of said sale as soon as possible after it is held.

AMOUNT OF STOCE. The amount of Louisville railroad stock held by the county is about $75,000, which stock is now worth 140 in New York. The county issued bonds many years ago for the payment of Ohio railroad stock, and some six years ago these were exchanged for Louisville and Nashville railroad stock at four to one. The $75,000 of Lousville railroad stock at 110 will retire $130,000 of the $300,000 of bonds issued by the county. OTHER BUSINESS. The quorum court took up the matters on petitions for reduction of assessments on property, and the matters as to account against the county.

B. Booner's Doings - Correction by the County Trustee.

Editors Appear - Please correct a little statement in your local of yesterday with reard to the man Dooner, who was caught dealing in bogus licenses. In the first place, Dooner was not in my employ, and his acts did not and could not affect me. Nor, indeed, could any license obtained from him, without my order to issue it, avail the holder. Nor can any man holding such a license escape, for we have a system of checks by which all such Logus licenses may and shall be discovered and canceled. But the main matter I desire corrected and gaderslood is this, that it is not true that I was license in the board of health:
